PASTORAL CARE

Pastoral care is carried out by our minister, Scott McKenna and our Pastoral Assistant, but so that it is more flexible and sensitive to needs, they are supported by teams of Pastoral Visitors.

At this moment we are awaiting the appointment of a new pastoral assistant, so to request a pastoral visit or to discuss a change in an existing pattern of visiting please contact Scott.

Everyone is also asked to let Scott, an Elder or a Pastoral Visitor know if they hear of a member of our community who has suffered a change in circumstances e.g. he or she is in hospital. It is the responsibility of us all to care for each other in this way. We need to ensure that support is available where it is most needed: our frailer, older members, and those with particular pastoral needs such as illness or bereavement.

Pastoral Team Co-ordinators' contact details can be found in the Grapevine magazine under Pastoral Care

Copies may be emailed from the church office, picked up from the church or can be delivered by one of our Grapevine distributors. It is also available on our website www.mayfieldsalisbury.org

A visit to our website is a must for those who use the internet. Apart from Grapevine and details of all our services, you will find Scott's sermons, guidance on prayer, recent news, the weekly intimations, a 'What's On' page giving details of special events and much more.
